UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF CONNECTICUT

E.I. DU PONT DE NEMOURS AND COMPANY,

Plaintiff,

MACDERMID PRINTING SOLUTIONS, L.L.C.,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION NO. _____

FEBRUARY 12, 2010

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, E.I. du Pont de Nemours and Company ("DuPont"), for its Complaint against MacDermid Printing Solutions, L.L.C. ("MacDermid"), alleges and states as follows:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff DuPont is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, having a regular and established place of business at 1007 Market Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19898.

2. Upon information and belief, Defendant MacDermid Printing Solutions, L.L.C. is a limited liability corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, and maintains its corporate headquarters and principal place of business in Waterbury, Connecticut. MacDermid is wholly owned by, and is under the corporate management and control of, MacDermid, Inc. MacDermid Printing Solutions is one of two "business groups" or "business segments" of MacDermid, Inc.

3. Upon information and belief, Defendant MacDermid has regularly, continuously and systematically transacted business in Connecticut by promoting, advertising, distributing, manufacturing, offering for sale, selling, causing to be used and otherwise supplying equipment (for example, MacDermid's LAVA 4260 thermal processor) to thermally treat, process or develop flexographic printing plates or elements to customers within this Judicial District and elsewhere in the United States.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This action arises under the United States Patent Laws, 35 U.S.C. §§ 271 and 281-285. This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a). Venue is proper in this Judicial District under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) and (c) and § 1400(b). Venue and jurisdiction are proper because Defendant MacDermid maintains its corporate headquarters and principal place of business within this Judicial District.

COUNT I

5. On September 28, 2004, United States Patent No. 6,797,454 B1 ("the '454 patent"), a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit A, was duly and legally issued in the names of Melvin Johnson, David Belfiore, Mark Hackler, Anandkumar Kannurpatti, Robert Brown, Stephen Cushner and Robert Drury for an invention entitled "Method And Apparatus For Thermal Processing A Photosensitive Element."

6. Plaintiff DuPont is the lawful owner of all right, title and interest in the '454 patent with the right to bring actions for infringement thereof.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendant MacDermid has manufactured, offered for sale and sold equipment (for example, MacDermid's LAVA 4260 thermal processor) that has been designed and that is used to thermally treat, process or develop flexographic printing plates or elements that directly infringes one or more claims of the '454 patent without authority or license from Plaintiff DuPont. Accordingly, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), Defendant MacDermid has directly infringed and continues to directly infringe one or more claims of the '454 patent.

8. Upon information and belief, Defendant MacDermid has knowingly and actively encouraged, aided and abetted others to directly infringe one or more claims of the '454 patent through the manufacture, use, sale, offers to sell, advertisement and/or promotion of equipment (for example, MacDermid's LAVA 4260 thermal processor) to thermally treat, process or develop flexographic printing plates or elements, without authority or license from Plaintiff DuPont. Accordingly, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(b), Defendant MacDermid has actively induced and continues to actively induce infringement of one or more claims of the '454 patent.

9. Plaintiff DuPont has been and continues to suffer damages resulting from Defendant MacDermid's direct and/or induced infringement of the '454 patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284. Plaintiff DuPont will suffer additional and irreparable harm unless this Court enjoins Defendant MacDermid pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283.

10. Plaintiff DuPont has no adequate remedy at law.

11. Upon information and belief, Defendant MacDermid's infringement of the '454 patent has been carried out deliberately and willfully, and with knowledge of the '454 patent, entitling Plaintiff DuPont to treble damages pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284. This is an exceptional case entitling Plaintiff DuPont to its attorneys' fees pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285.

RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff DuPont demands judgment against Defendant MacDermid and respectfully prays that this Court enter judgment as follows:

(a) Declare that Defendant MacDermid's manufacture, offers to sell and/or sale of equipment designed and used to thermally treat, process or develop flexographic printing plates or elements constitutes direct infringement of United States Patent No. 6,797,454 B1;

(b) Declare that Defendant MacDermid's manufacture, use, offers to sell and/or sale of equipment designed and used to thermally treat, process or develop flexographic printing plates or elements constitutes an inducement of infringement of United States Patent No. 6,797,454 B1;

(c) Preliminarily and permanently enjoin Defendant MacDermid and its officers, directors, employees, agents, contractors, representatives, suppliers and all others acting in concert or participation with them from further acts of infringement of United States Patent No. 6,797,454 B1;

(d) Award Plaintiff DuPont three (3) times the damages it has incurred by reason of the willful and deliberate nature of the acts of infringement by Defendant MacDermid pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;

(e) Award Plaintiff DuPont its costs and expenses of this action as allowed by law, together with its reasonable attorneys' fees for bringing and prosecuting this action pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285; and

(f) Award Plaintiff DuPont such other and further relief that the Court may deem just and proper.
